Re:

WC Docket No. 14-58 WC Docket No. 11-42

Submission of Redacted Version of FCC Form 481 and Updated Five Year Plan for Armstrong Telephone Company – New York (Study Area Code 150071)

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Attached for filing are two copies of the redacted public version of (1) the FCC Form 481 of Armstrong Telephone Company – New York (the "Company") which contains the Company's updated five-year plan required by Section 54.313 of the Commission's Rules.

The Company's FCC Form 481 has been electronically filed with the Universal Service Administrative Company. Consistent with 47 C.F.R. § 0.459 of the Commission's Rules, the Company, under separate letter, has submitted the confidential version of the Company's FCC Form 481 which contains the Company's updated five-year plan.

Respectfully submitted,

Thomas J. Moorman James A. Overcash

Counsel to

Armstrong Telephone Company - New York

§54.313(a)(6) – ABILITY TO FUNCTION IN EMERGENCY SITUATIONS

I am authorized to provide this certification on behalf of Armstrong Telephone Company- New York (the "Company"). I hereby certify that, to the best of my knowledge, the Company is capable of functioning in emergency situations. The Company has a reasonable amount of back-up power to ensure functionality of voice services without a commercial power source. The company's specific back-up power sources are, lead calcium batteries, gel cell batteries, fixed AC and DC natural/LP gas generators, fixed AC and DC gasoline/diesel generators and portable gasoline generators. The Company is able to reroute voice traffic around damaged facilities, and is capable of managing traffic spikes resulting from emergency situations. If there is a failure of the Company's main route, voice traffic is automatically rerouted to the back-up route.

Voice Services Comparability Report

Pursuant to 47 C.F.R. § 54.313 (a) (10) Armstrong Telephone Company – New York (the "Company") is in compliance with the requirement that voice services is no more than two standard deviations above the national average urban rate for voice service of $47.48 as specified in Public Notice DA 15-470 issued on April 16, 2015. The Company's current total local end-user rate¹ of $23.00 (which includes a local fee of $23.00, mandated state fees of 0.00 and mandatory extended area service charges of $0.00) is not above the standard deviation as specified in the USF/ICC Transformation Order. ²

¹ Local End User Rate as defined in USF/ICC Transformation Order 26 FCC Rcd at 17751, Para. 238

² USF/ICC Transformation Order, 26 FCC Rcd at 17694, Para. 84 (footnote included) "The standard deviation is a measure of dispersion. The sample standard deviation is the square root of the sample variance. The sample variance is calculated as the sum of the squared deviations of the individual observations in the sample of data from the sample average divided by the total number of observations in the sample minus one. In a normal distribution, about 68 percent of the observations lie within one standard deviation above and below the average and about 95 percent of the observations lie within two standard deviations above and below the average."

A. LIFELINE TELEPHONE SERVICE

- 1. Lifeline Telephone Service Options
 - a. Description
 - Lifeline Discounted Service

This service provides a flat rate federal discount of $9.25, consisting of a $6.50 reduction of the Federal Subscriber Line Charge and a $2.75 reduction in the monthly rate for local exchange telephone service for residential customers. Qualified customers may choose any type or grade of local telephone service, including bundled services that are normally offered by the Company.

1 A. Additional Lifeline Discount

This service provides the discount as outlined in A.1.a.1 above and may provide an additional discount equal to the serving company's increase in residential basic local exchange service, as authorized by the NYS Department of Public Service in Case No. 07-C-0349, released March 4, 2008, whereby the NY Commission authorized certain companies to increase basic local service rates up to $2.00 per year for 2 years. The discount can be found on Addendum 1 of the individual Company tariff for those companies offering the Additional Lifeline Discount.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Board of Directors

Armstrong Telephone Company - New York, Inc.

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Armstrong Telephone Company – New York, Inc. (Company), which comprise the balance sheets as of September 30, 2014 and 2013, and the related statements of operations, stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Armstrong Telephone Company – New York, Inc. as of September 30, 2014 and 2013, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Emphasis of Matter

As described in Note 7 to the financial statements, the Company corrected its accounting for deferred taxes and has restated its balance sheet as of October 1, 2013, to conform with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.
